LETTER TO ATHLETES

The 2018 Pasadena Senior Games have ended, and the results are in! Congratulations to the 2000 athletes who participated this year, proving once again that passion, commitment, and joy in competition is not defined by age.

Pasadena Senior Games was an official qualifying Games for the 2019 National Senior Games to be held in Albuquerque, New Mexico next June. Competition was fierce for a chance to go to Nationals; but while hoping to take the gold themselves, competitors cheered each other on too, encouraging everyone to reach for their own personal best. And a personal best can sometimes be an all-around best: we had a world record set in Women's Javelin (pending certification) by 66-year old Linda Cohn.

Producing a sports festival that covers 25 sports in 22 different venues with 2000 participants is complex, to say the least. It doesn't just take a village to put on the Games, it takes lots of villages all working together. There are the sports commissioners and meet directors who make sure the rules of each sport are followed, set up the competitions, and provide officials and timers, equipment, and advice. There are volunteers, often athletes themselves, who assist in the smooth running of each sport as well as general administration. Pasadena Senior Center, the host of the Games, provides staff and volunteers who work tirelessly for months to produce the Games. Special thanks goes to Volunteer and Enrichment Program Manager Renee Uriarte who attends to many of the administrative details of the Games.

Each year, it is increasingly expensive to produce the Games, and our gratitude goes out to the sponsors and donors of our 2018 Games. The generosity of businesses, organizations, and individuals, along with the many venues and vendors who extend free or discounted rates to us, allow us to keep the Games affordable for participants.

Lastly, I want to extend a thank-you to the athletes themselves, without whom there would be no Senior Games. Getting to meet and spend time with so many vibrant, friendly, and generous people is not only inspiring, it is a heck of a lot of fun. As the late Cynthia Rosedale, who founded the Pasadena Senior Games 26 years ago, would say, "Hubba Hubba!" And as we say at the Pasadena Senior Center, #AgeWell!
